

Resolution 013
A Resolution to Establish the Position of Parliamentarian of the Student Government Association
Sponsored by: Chairman Aaron Mackisey

Whereas,

The essential duty of the Senate to operate is of the highest concern to this body and thus requires the establishment of the position of Parliamentarian.

Whereas,

The duties of the Parliamentarian shall include: provide essential, necessary, and superluminous advice to the President of the Senate regarding rules concerning the conduct and execution of the duties of the Senate. To be available to members of the Senate in order to inquire about the rules and other governing principles regarding the Senate and its parts. To be available during the intercourse of the Senate for questions concerning parliamentary procedure.

Whereas,

The Parliamentarian is subject to the discretion of the Vice President, and is a position filled by the Executive, but has the authority to be a present member of the Senate.

Be it enacted that,

The Student Government Association Senate, acting as a representative of students at the Catholic University of America, hereby establishes the position of Parliamentarian with all of the powers and responsibilities associated therein.
