Sponsored by: Senator Andrew Elder
Co-Sponsored by: Senator John Connolly, Senator Nicholas Procino, & Senator Andrew Nagode

Whereas,

The University course instructors control how to run their classrooms.

Whereas,

The University is comprised of students from all walks of life, and some students struggle to afford additional costs to a classroom.

Whereas,

The inability to attend such activities, because of the burdensome cost, such as the attendance for a play, can affect the student's grade.

Whereas,

Making note of additional costs within a course's syllabus can aid students in financial planning, and ensure that students can partake in all course activities.

Be it enacted that,

The Catholic University of America Student Government Senate, to provide more information to students about classes, hereby requests the University to have each instructor name any additional costs that a student might incur for the respective term of the course.
