

Resolution 011

A Resolution to Establish the Usage of an Online App for the On-Campus Starbucks

Sponsored by: Senator Drauschak

Co-Sponsored by: Senator Kish, Senator Martin, Senator Musick, Senator Suarez

Whereas,

Starbucks is one of the most widely recognized coffee shops worldwide with more than 33,000 stores.

Whereas,

There is a Starbucks located on The Catholic University of America’s (CUA) campus on the third floor of the Edward J. Pryzbyla University Center (Pryz).

Whereas,

Starbucks has an online application, available on mobile devices, that enable customers to order and purchase food and drinks ahead of time as well as in the store.

Whereas,

The on-campus Starbucks is already recognized on the app and referred to as “The Catholic University of America”, but does not have order-ahead or pay-through-the-app features at this time.

Whereas,

Starbucks will be switching to a new application platform in January which will allow for the on-campus Starbucks to be featured and available on the app for in-store purchases and order ahead options.

Be it enacted that,

The Student Government Association Senate, acting in its official capacity as the representative of the undergraduate student body of The Catholic University of America, hereby requests that 1. The on-campus Starbucks will begin using the online app once it becomes available for in-store purchases as well as order ahead options.

- 2. Dining Services promote the inclusion of this app to the student body through advertisements and social media.

Agreed to by a vote of _____ yeas to _____ nays on this date: _____ with _____ abstaining and _____ not present.
